The state of Indiana, Switzerland county, SS:

On this ~~thirteenth~~ day of August, A. D. 1832, personally appeared, in open court, before the Honorable, the Probate court, of the county aforesaid, being a court of record, ~~Robert Gullion~~ Robert Gullion, a resident of Switzerland county and Ind. State, aged ~~Sixty Eight~~ years, who, being first duly sworn according to law, doth, on his said oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the provision made by the act of congress, passed the 7th of June, A. D. 1832, that he, the said Robert Gullion, entered the service of the United States, during the AMERICAN REVOLUTIONARY WAR, under the following named officers, and served as herein stated—That he, the said Robert, ~~served~~

1. In 1780 or 1781, in a company of Militia or rangers, commanded by captain ~~Shelton~~ of Westmoreland county, Pennsylvania, and was stationed at a block house on the waters of Turtle creek in the State of Penn<sup>a</sup>: which block house was about twelve miles from Boardman's field, and served upwards of ninety days.
2. In April or May 1782, in a company of Militia commanded by capt. Andrew ~~Steed~~, in the expedition commanded by col. William Crawford and marched from Kings bottom on the Ohio river against the Indian towns near Sandusky, and said expedition was defeated by the Indians on the evening of the 11th of June 1782, and served upwards of three months at a private soldier.

And, that he hereby relinquishes every claim to a pension or annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not on the pension roll of the agency of any state.

The Court, then propounded the following interrogatories to the said Robert Gullion

1. Where, and in what year were you born? Ans. I was born near foot Frederick, on the Potomac river, on the 11th day of Feb<sup>y</sup> seventeen hundred and fifty-four (1754)
2. Have you any record of your age, and if so, where is it?
I have not, and never had any record.
3. Where were you living when called into service; where have you lived since the Revolutionary war; and where do you now live?
I then lived on Big Seventy creek, Westmoreland county, State of Pennsylvania—lived since I left Pennsylvania 13 or 14 years in Kentucky and for the last 33 years in Indiana—now live on Switzerland county, aforesaid.
4. How were you called into service; were you drafted—did you volunteer, or were you a substitute? and if a substitute, for whom?
I volunteered, both times.
5. State the names of some of the Regular officers, who were with the troops where you served; such Continental and Militia regiments as you can recollect, and the general circumstances of your service.
There were I believe no regular officers in command—We were rendezvoused at Kings Bottom on the Ohio river the number of about five hundred men—then crossed the river and took up the line of march for Sandusky, but were defeated by the Indians on the 14th day of June 1782. Nicholson, Glover and James were our spies or pilots

6. Did you ever receive a discharge from the service, and if so, by whom was it signed, and what has become of it?

No. I never received a written discharge

7. State the names of persons to whom you are known in your present neighborhood, and who can testify as to your character for veracity, and their belief of your services as a soldier of the Revolution.

William Scudder
Supt. Callin, Edward Patton, John F. Dufour
Elisha Golay, Newton St. Jepp, &c. &c. &c.

8. Have you any documentary evidence of your services, and do you know of know of any person now living whose testimony you can procure to testify to your services?

I have no documentary evidence My brother John (of Decatur county, Indiana, who draws a pension) was with me during all the foregoing service.

Rev. A1812 Wars Section,
ADY

Dear Madam:

You are advised that it appears from the papers in the Revolutionary War pension claim, S. 16333, that Robert Gullion was born February 4, 1764 near Fort Frederick on the Potomac River.

While a resident of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, he enlisted in 1781 and served three months as a private in Captain Shearer's Pennsylvania Company.

He enlisted in April 1782 and served three months as a private in Captain Andrew Hood's Company, Colonel William Crawford's Pennsylvania Regiment.

Soldier moved from Pennsylvania to Kentucky where he lived about fourteen years.

He was allowed pension on his application executed August 13, 1832 while a resident of Switzerland County, Indiana, in which state he had lived for thirty-three years.

Soldier's brother, John Gullion, was a resident of Decatur County, Indiana, and aged seventy-one years in 1833. There are no further family data.

Very truly yours,

date of death not on A.B.
