Notes for Robert W. Moore:

Obituary of Robert Moore, Carrollton Democrat, Published on 31, January, 1891.

Uncle Robert Moore, who lacked but a few days of being 95 years of age, passed away Thursday night after an illness of less than a week, with pneumonia. He was the oldest man in the county, and had lived his whole life within a mile or two of the spot where he was born, in 1796, about a year before Washington retired from the presidential chair. He was a clever and hospitable man; was remarkably hale and active up to his last illness; worked in the fields regularly until the close of the last season; would ride to Carrollton or elsewhere, mounting and dismounting with ease. He had very little faith in physicians, and never sought their services, even refusing medical attention in his last illness. He cast his first vote in 1816 before he was 21 years of age and it was a Democratic vote. From that vote to until his last, a period of 75 years, he never scratched the party ticket, and attended all important elections. At last August elections when the State ticket was thought to be in danger, Uncle Bob was one of the first men at the polls, we learn. He was not a member of a church it was stated. His wife survives, being about 70 years old, and four children are still living.

2 August, 1890, Carrollton Democrat

Uncle Bob Moore of the Mill Creek precinct will soon be 96 years old; he is as active as many a man at seventy. He does most of the work on his farm of 125 acres, and rides alone all over the country. Only last Thursday he was in Carrollton. He is a life long democrat and is just sure to vote the full ticket next Monday.
