

Carrollton man killed Thursday in 1-car accident

From Staff and Special Dispatches

CARROLLTON, Ky. — A 36-year-old Carrollton man was killed Thursday afternoon in a one-car accident on Boone Road in Carroll County, state police at La Grange said.

Phillip W. Tharp was alone in his northbound car when he ran off the road and over an embankment about 1 p.m., police said. He was thrown from the car and pinned beneath it, they said.

Tharp died at the scene, police said.

Tharp was an employee of Dayton-Walther Casting Center in Carrollton.

Survivors include his wife, the former Karen Fitzgerald; three sons, Phillip J., Jeremy L. and Ian R. Tharp, all of Carrollton; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Tharp of Carrollton; a brother, Randy Tharp of Carrollton; a sister, Brenda Woodworth of Lawrenceburg; and his grandparents, Donna Tharp and Anna Hawkins, both of Carrollton.

The funeral will be at 2 p.m. tomorrow at Graham-Dunn Funeral Home in Carrollton, with burial in Odd Fellows Cemetery there.

Visitation will be at the funeral home after 5 p.m. today.
